SOUTHERN CLUB IN SPOKANE, WASH.

William W. White, of Virginia, Is Secretary, and Gray R. Harrower, on the Board. SPOKANE, WASH., September 23 .-

Chairman, Guy B. Groff, Maryland.
Secretary, William W. White, Virginia.

Trustees, E. H. Gimper and W. H.
Bourke, Texas; H. J. Darby, Arkansas.
Membership Committee, W. V. Dougias, Missouri; Gray R. Harrower, Virginia; Carroll Smith, North Carolina.

The purpose of the organization is to promote acquaintance and fellowship among the people of the Southern States living in Spokane, to provide entertainment for Southerners coming to Spokane and the Pacific Northwest, and to have dances, musicales and theatricals.

It is also planned to build a clubhouse and grounds, and organize a ladies' auxiliary to assist the members in entertaining visitors from the Southern States. Chairman, Groff announces that former residents of any of the Southern States are eligible to membership, adding:

"There are several thousand former residents of the Southern Club we hope to bring them together for social and business benefits. While preparations are being made for the construction of a permanent house for the club, we will secure a hall, where gatherings of all kinds will be held, and I believe we will have a membership of at least 300 before the beginning of the cub are.

The charter members of the club are.
